About Academia Publishing

Academia Publishing is an open access, peer-reviewed journals that facilitate a cost effective access to the quality research findings in the domains of engineering, medical science, scientific research, biological sciences, agricultural sciences, educational research, business and management studies and includes broad interest titles through the publication of online quality scholarly journals. All original research articles published by Academia Publishing are made freely and permanently accessible online immediately upon publication. Academia Publishing levies an article-processing charge to cover the cost of the publication process.

Academia Publishing are using the best available technology for rapid and reliable online Publications and has outstanding peer reviewers and Journal Management System. Authors Publishing with Academia Publishing retain the copyright to their work, which allows articles to be re-used and re-distributed without restriction, as long as the original work is correctly cited.

Academia Publishing is a member of CrossRef and uses Cited-by Linking and CrossCheck a plagiarism screening tool for scholarly and professional publishers. All articles published by Academia Publishing are assigned a DOI number and deposited in CrossRef database enabling maximum citation of research work to other quality scholarly journals that are also members of CrossRef.

Academia Publishing production offers the gold standard in article production, assuring authors of a consistently high quality service across all areas. We are accredited to provide standardized framework for the processes by which high-quality products are created and service given, to the satisfaction of all customers. Academia Publishing aims to demonstrate to societies, editors, authors, and students that there is a robust methodology in place for the management of quality in relation to its operational processes.

Being an Open Access Publisher, Academia Publishing does not receive payment for subscription as the journals are freely accessible over the internet; Authors of articles are required to pay a flat charge of APC for processing their articles. However, there are no submission charges. Authors are required to make payment ONLY after their manuscripts have been accepted for publication. The positions for reviewers and editors of the various journals are purely voluntary.
